

APPLICATION FOR DECLARATION TO BE DEEMED NOT TO BE A PROHIBITED PERSON

IMPORTANT: PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION BEFORE COMPLETING THIS APPLICATION

An application under section 189 of the Firearms Act 1966 to be deemed not to be a prohibited person can only be made in the following circumstances:

- You are subject to a final Intervention Order made in Victoria under the Family Violence Protection Act 2008, and the Court has not imposed conditions that have cancelled, suspended or revoked your firearm licence, permit or authority.
- You are subject to a final Intervention Order made in Victoria under the Personal Safety Intervention Orders Act 2010 or the Stalking Intervention Orders Act 2008, and the Court has not imposed conditions that have cancelled, suspended or revoked your firearm licence, permit or authority.
- You have been found guilty of:
 - an offence under the Firearms Act 1966,
 - an offence under any other Act involving the possession or use of firearms or
 - an indictable offence,

AND you were not sentenced to a term of imprisonment.

(A term of imprisonment under section 3 of the Firearms Act 1966 includes a suspended sentence, intensive corrections order or detention in a Youth Justice Centre.)

Please Note:

You are unable to make an application if you are subject to an interim order.

You are unable to make an application if you are appealing the decision of a final Intervention Order and that appeal has not yet been determined.

Your application must be lodged at the Magistrates' Court where the prohibitive order was made. Except:

- If you are the subject of any prohibiting intervention orders or criminal outcomes interstate, you must lodge your application at the Supreme Court.
- If you are the subject of any prohibiting intervention orders or criminal outcomes as a result of proceedings in the County Court, you must lodge your application at the County Court.

If you are unsure as to whether you are a prohibited person under Section 3(1) of the Firearms Act 1996, and/or are listed as an appropriate applicant (in relation to Section 189), you should seek advice before lodging this application

(Insert full name of the person protected by the Court Order)

- The Court records indicate that you are a Protected Person by means of an Intervention Order made under Section 74 of the Family Violence Protection Act 2008 or Section 61 of the Personal Safety Intervention Orders Act 2010, or an Affected Person under Section 7 of the Stalking Intervention Order Act 2008, or a person protected by a corresponding order made in another State or Territory.
- This is written notification that the Respondent (Prohibited Person) who is subject to the Intervention Order or corresponding interstate order has made an application under Section 189 of the Firearms Act 1996 for a declaration to be deemed a non-prohibited person. (See copy attached). This means the applicant intends to have his/her firearm licence reinstated or intends to apply for a firearm licence, permit or authority if deemed non-prohibited by the Court.
- The Firearms Act 1996 states that you may appear before the Court to be heard on this application. You can appear before the Court to object to or support the Respondent's application. Should you wish to attend the Court hearing, you can also choose to seek independent legal advice. If you intend to have legal representation, please advise the Court of this prior to the hearing. This is necessary for the Court to allocate sufficient time to determine the matter. If the police initiated your original application for an intervention order, you should advise the police applicant of your intentions.
