Note

Pursuant to section 326(1)(b) of the Act, an application made by a parent who does not have parental responsibility for the child to vary or revoke a permanent care order may only be made with the leave of the Court. Under section 326(2A) of the Act, such an application must not be served on the child or the permanent care parents unless the leave of the Court has been granted.

Pursuant to section 326(1B) of the Act, an application to vary a permanent care order by a parent who does not have parental responsibility for the child made within 12 months of the making of the permanent care order may only be made on the basis that a contact condition in the order has not been complied with.
